

Organelle Web Quest: Use this listing of websites to help you gather more information regarding cells and organelles. While some are simply power point slide shows, many of these sites have good animations and several have online quizzes to assist in your preparation for quizzes and the test.

<http://www.cellsalive.com> A TON of good stuff here. Quizzes included. Highly recommended as a starting point.

<http://Biology.clc.uc.edu/courses/bio104/cells.htm> Another great site for review and/or studying for the first time.

<http://biology.about.com/library/weekly/aa031600a.htm> "Journey into the Cell" Easy explanations and the graphics/animations are helpful. Some annoying popups.

http://www.execulink.com/~ekimmel/drag_gr11/organell.htm Good graphics and explanations as well as nice "drag and drop" quiz on organelles and functions.

<http://www.tvdsb.on.ca/westmin/science/sbi3a1/Cells/cells.htm> Interactive!! You point, it tells you info. Quiz provided.

<http://www.quia.com/jfc/65947.html> Interactive organelle flashcards, and other games for self quizzing. One of the best for studying.

http://www.biology.arizona.edu/cell_bio/tutorials/pev/page3.html Understandable definitions of organelles with pictures of each. You'll visit this site frequently in class.

http://wiley.com/legacy/college/boyer/0470003790/animations/cell_structure/cell_structure.htm The animations are incredible. The "build a cell" simulation is a really nice feature!

<http://www.biologylessons.sdsu.edu/classes/lab7/semnet/organelle.htm> "This is a collection of concept maps for info of each organelle. Links to pics and more info as well!! VERY impressive study tool - organizes all the trivia as understandable relationships!

There are many more out there on the internet... hop on Google and find them!
Let us know good ones that are helpful to you and we'll share them with all!